lectman James Huntoon, by allowing 2 member towns in a District to overrule and cancel out the voters of the third town even though the single town carries the major cost. Mattapoisett, with 48% of the cost of maintaining the regional schools, has a minority voice according to Huntoon because each town has 3 members on the School Committee. This same inequity had been the subject of town meeting consideration in the past on the Constitutional issue of "one man - one vote".

Mr. Huntoon said that Mattapoisett with half the cost has a minority voice in the operation of the District and he would like to see an 11 member school committee - one more member for Mattapoisett and 1 member at large.

The ORR certified budget, according to figures Selectmen have compiled, represents a 9.93% increase over last year's budget on its impact on Mattapoisett. Huntoon said that when you have one pot for all town services and ORR District comes in and asks for 10% more in one year, then that money must be taken from other services in that same pot. Town meeting voters have approved an $11,000 increase over last year's assessment based on the figure that Rochester could apparently afford. Now Rochester, having found funds, if it decides to apply all of this money to the ORR District, forces Mattapoisett to be short by $96,704.00. The impact of this is serious because it would not only take the town's operating cash but would force cancellation of Town Hall repairs which are badly needed, take money voted for revaluation purposes, and forgo some other capital expenses that would would be requested at the upcoming Special Town Meeting. Chairman John DeCosta said "We are talking major problems here." He said that, while town employees have been given 5% pay raises in recent years, the ORR District employees have been getting 8% raises. The Selectmen pointed out the town has always been willing to support education but Huntoon said that the latest figures could force "Mattapoisett to the wall". He said that the school should look at paring administration costs, limiting extra curricular activities and consider cutting expensive programs that are enjoyed by few. Huntoon said that he has heard more opposition to the Selectmen's position on relining Route 6 than he has heard opposed to cutting costs at the ORR Regional District.

Selectman Frank Suzan agreed and stated that the town had voted the $11,000 increase and that is the town's position. He said that he did not see it changing.

GRANGE HALL FUTURE

Selectmen briefly discussed the future for the Grange Hall and may ask voters for permission to put it up for sale.

Selectmen have tentatively set the salary of the Deputy Fire Chief at $800. annually and referred it to the Personnel Board for evaluation.

THE PASTA HISTORY

Lasagna, Spaghetti, Ravioli, Fettucini, Cannelloni and Tortellini; Egg or green spinach Pasta. Homemade pasta, prepared with all the goodness of the old ways and days, is now more popular throughout the world than ever before. Not merely because of the delectably varied dishes based on pasta, but because the youth of today has adopted pasta creations as its own. Nutritionists now appreciate the importance and value of properly prepared pasta, with its wealth of proteins, vitamins and minerals. And lovers of good food enjoy the delicious variety it offers. For that is the beauty of pasta. It can be prepared with meat ... with fish ... with vegetables or a salad. And, with imagination and taste, pasta can be a dish for weight watchers, ecologists or gourmets.

Our unique method of preparing pasta and the savoury variations offered in our menu are inspired by the traditional northern Italian cuisine which has contributed so much to good, wholesome eating.

We pledge to maintain the old traditions of fine quality and value in our service to you, our customers.

"All our pasta is cooked to order, because 'Pasta is very impatient'. The sauce will wait for the Pasta, but the Pasta will not wait for the sauce."

Another Grim Statistic

Editorial, D.C.J.

The relined Route 6 has toted up another statistic for the growing list with Thursday afternoon's fatal accident which is the third in little more than a year. For whatever reason, the "safer" configuration of this road has not proven effective in helping to prevent the head-on collision which has ended lives and broken lives. Undoubtedly, many other factors are involved, Accidents are caused by human error, mechanical failure, road conditions, etc., but the fact is clear that Route 6 has become a dangerous passage.

In traveling Route 6 frequently, we note a phenomenon. Cars prohibited from travel-to react. Now, vehicles are barred from the inner lane and the margin or error sometimes is less than 4 feet. A sneeze could prove disastrous. If you stand on the curve below the hill near Reservation Road note the percentage of cars that drift to the center line or over it as they travel west. Whether it be centrifugal force or inattention, many do narrow that margin to 0%. If we are to be forced to live with this configuration of the road, perhaps the best move is to prohibit any passing (which sets up the head-on collision). Perhaps the road should be double lined in the center for the whole stretch that has been federally relined and no passing allowed. This coupled with a request for a posted minimum speed might make the road a lot less hazardous. In the meantime, motorists traveling Route 6 would do very well to hug the breakdown lane line rather than the center line. Human error will always be a factor on the highway but a little reaction space could prove the difference between life and death.

Letters to the Editor

On June 2nd there was a serious accident on Route 6 in front of the Hillside Motel in Mattapoisett.

I heard the crash from my front yard and went down to see if I could assist in any way.

In a matter of a couple of minutes the police from Mattapoisett were there. Two minutes later the rescue truck and the "jaws of life". Shortly after, the ambulances from Mattapoisett, Marion and Fairhaven with E.M.T.'s were working, taking extremely good care of the three victims.

We, the Citizens of Mattapoisett, should be extremely proud of our police, firemen, and E.M.T.'s and those who responded from neighboring towns.

I witnessed professionalism and efficiency by the personnel involved. We are very fortunate to have such a team of professionals, always ready to protect and safeguard our well being.

We should all feel proud. I know I do.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Once again history repeats itself! We are passing through another period in our country's history when many teachers and preachers are frowning on the mention of the word "war", and consequently ignoring the story of America's wars, American sacrifices in the cause of justice and liberty, American generosity, and our Veterans both dead and wounded. They do this thinking that they are contributing to the cause of world peace. How sad this is, particularly at Memorial Day time, when we should be unusually conscious of why America is still privileged to be a great and independent country.

As a teacher of history in the post World War I pacifistic decade, I remember the pressure that was put upon me, to refrain all teaching about American history as related to our wars. To do otherwise was supposed, in some mysterious way, to be conducive to bringing on new wars! Despite this period of ignoring the military history of our nation's past, World War II blossomed forth in all its fury. Without the protection of our Atlantic and Pacific sea walls, giving us time to rearm, we would probably have lost the war.

And now, here we go again; this time without our former Atlantic-Pacific time-gaining protection. Once more, to write or talk about our past wars, the possibility of new wars, the great need for rearming, is decried by our secular humanists, some of whom are well meaning, but cannot understand the lessons of history.

Recently I fell into conversation with a 1983 college graduate who had majored in political science. He was an able and personable young man whom I liked very much. However, his college professors had given him such a distorted picture of American history and American foreign policy that I was really grieved. As we pleasantly debated various present day issues, I was pleased to see that his mother, who was listening to us, nodded her approval when I met some of her son's arguments. Although she was justifiably proud of her son, it was obvious that she didn't buy all that his teachers had told him!

I am afraid that too many of our fine young people attending college are being led away from the traditional beliefs that have so greatly contributed to having made America great. Our track record for the past two hundred years is not perfect, but it is the best that our world has yet seen!

Let us remember that our Lord did not say, blessed are the pacifists, but rather, "Blessed are the peacemakers". There's a big difference!

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Your pictures and articles on the Memorial Day services and parade and local race amazed me. Most of the activities written about and photographed could not have happened at least till mid-afternoon on Monday, and yet by 4 p.m. on Tuesday the many cartons of the Presto Press were at Seaport Pharmacy ready to be read.

Congratulations on your efficiency. I am sure I speak for many people in the area who appreciate your publication.

Sincerely yours,

Parkwood Hospital

ROBERT F. DAVIS
Executive Director

June 8, 1983

Thank you!

Parkwood Hospital is now embarking on its fourth year since it began its new ownership and management at the end of May, 1980. In the ensuing three years, you have seen and heard of many changes and improvements that have been made at Parkwood, but there are many, many more, none of which could have been possible without the constant support of the greater New Bedford community we serve.

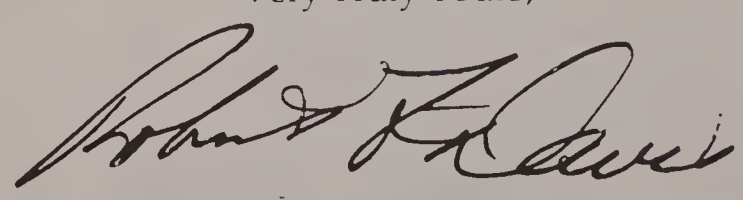
In the summer of 1980, you, our local businessmen, elected officials, and families — citizens concerned for the welfare of all — rallied to support the hospital's bid to remain a full-service general medical/surgical facility keeping intact its intensive care unit and 24-hour emergency services, so vital to the area. With your help, we succeeded.

With your continued mandate, Parkwood Hospital has striven to strengthen and build on our commitment to provide the quality, personalized care and community services that only a small hospital can offer. With your help, we have made great strides. All new patient furniture, state-of-the-art medical and surgical equipment, energy efficient renovations to control both operating costs and your bills, expanded outpatient medical, surgical and mental health services, and key additions to our medical staff recruited to fill the area's need for both primary care and Portuguese-speaking physicians are just a few of the many steps we have taken.

As of this spring, our growth has taken a new direction — toward new construction to provide expanded services. The Parkwood Medical Building, to be completed this summer, will provide convenient and efficient offices for five primary care doctors. Also this summer, we hope final state approval will be granted to build Parkwood Manor, a long-awaited, much needed 122-bed nursing home intended to address the elderly's special medical needs.

None of this progress could have been made without the encouragement and assistance of those we serve. To you, the residents of Acushnet, Dartmouth, Fairhaven, Freetown, New Bedford, Marion, Mattapoisett, Rochester and our surrounding towns, we owe our deepest thanks and a renewed commitment to meeting your needs as your community hospital.

Very Truly Yours,



Robert F. Davis

of Veterans' Agent for both Mattapoisett and Rochester in recent years and has served as Mattapoisett representative on the Old Rochester Regional School District Committee until retiring this year as chairman.

Chairman of the Board of Selectmen John DeCosta outlined a history of White's service and presented him with a scrimshaw handled letter opener as a gift from all assembled friends. Selectman Frank Suzan presented a gift from the Selectmen, a framed photograph of the Shipyard Park bandstand taken by Executive Secretary Carol Adams.

Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, Marion, Betsy Parks presented a certificate from that town's Board of Selectmen. A corn cob pipe was presented amid some gags to note George White's ability to put up prodigious clouds of smoke at the various meetings over the years.

together, we have learned together, we have smiled together, and we have cried together. I could never be more pleased than to say that we are all here. The Class of 1983 is complete.

We are a team with vast potential and we realize that we can do anything. We are a strong chain that can withstand anything for the strength of a chain is pending upon its weakest link. I think each one of us realizes that he or she first must be an individual, then we can be a team. The diversity in the members of this class is amazing and I urge my fellow classmates to do your own thing but to make sure you do everything you do well because if anything is worth doing, it's worth doing well.

I urge my classmates to realize that the time to dream is diminishing, for it is now time to start living those dreams. CLASS OF 1983, MAKE THOSE DREAMS COME TRUE. Nothing is impossible.

I urge you, family and friends, to stand on your own two feet and not to let life pass you by, but go after it, open your eyes wider than wide, and grasp this world in your hands. Make it what you want it to be, feel it, and live it.

This is only the beginning of our education, for each moment, every step you take in life is part of an unlimited education. Education is a never-ending process. Education is Life.

The more you learn, the more you live. The more you live, the more you learn.

I urge each and every one of you - to live and to Smile. Share that Smile because the best present that can be given is a present of the heart, is a feeling and

Ms. McDonald is a director of the Child Abuse Team for the Boston City Hospital and has performed extensive in-service training programs on Child Abuse and Neglect in the Boston Police and School Departments as well as the Attleboro and Needham School Departments.

The June 20th symposium is an integral part of ongoing programs at the Marion Center for Human Services which is available to parents who are interested in and/or need to learn more effective ways of parenting. The Center has had many requests from schools and other agencies for this service.

The Center's Child Abuse program is directed toward total involvement, ongoing participation, education, training and service for the individual, the family and the community.

While the focus of the symposium is Prevention of Child Abuse, the Marion Center maintains a strong commitment to continue treating both children and adults who are now suffering as a result of child abuse and they will continue to do so. But based on what the Center is now seeing and experiencing in the area of child abuse it is convinced that the ultimate treatment is prevention.

GUIDED WALK

Join the Lloyd Center staff for a guided walk through the saltmarsh on Sunday, June 12th, at 1:30 p.m. at the Lloyd Center for Environmental Studies, 430 Potomska Road, South Dartmouth.

In spite of a rainy and cool spring season, the saltmarsh is starting to look green as the dominant marsh grasses have begun another season of growth. Among these grasses a variety of small animals grow and thrive. Both plants and animals are adapted to a rigorous life in the marsh and are affected by such non-living factors as wind, salinity, and soil moisture.

During this walk, participants will examine at close range the dynamics of the saltmarsh community. Please come with appropriate footgear.

Weekly walks at the Lloyd Center are open to the public and are free of charge.

New Easter Seal Service

EQUIPMENT LOAN SERVICE

The Massachusetts Easter Seal Society has introduced a new Equipment Loan service to assist persons with disabilities in their rehabilitation.

Under this program, the Society will make such equipment as crutches, wheelchairs, commodes and canes available at no charge to those requesting this service. According to Audrey Haworth, RPT, Director of the Equipment Loan Program, "The Society is introducing the Equipment Loan Program initially in the New Bedford, Fall River and Taunton areas with the aim of expanding the service throughout Massachusetts".

Mrs. Haworth noted that, "the service will be provided to persons for whom equipment has been medically prescribed as part of their rehabilitation."

Persons wishing to either borrow or donate equipment should contact the Society's Equipment Loan Program at 1145 Purchase Street, New Bedford or by calling 997-1554.
